

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Meridian Citizens Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/23/2010 8:18:54 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Liberty Insurance Corporation

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 6:17:52 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

BancInsure Inc

Date Time Stamp 3/26/2010 3:26:07 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Electric Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/9/2010 1:19:12 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Clarendon National Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/11/2010 7:49:41 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Fairfield Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/15/2010 1:16:32 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Health Care Insurance Reciprocal

Date Time Stamp 3/22/2010 9:23:33 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Northbrook Indemnity Company

Date Time Stamp 3/24/2010 8:57:19 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

MEMIC Indemnity Company

Date Time Stamp 7/19/2010 3:20:38 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Affiliated FM Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/5/2010 10:35:55 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

LM Property & Casualty Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/7/2010 7:15:04 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Cherokee Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/9/2010 9:15:56 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Star Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/19/2010 8:03:46 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Benchmark Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/20/2010 8:44:04 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

EMCASCO Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/21/2010 7:21:33 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Union Insurance Company of Providence

Date Time Stamp 4/21/2010 7:30:23 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

T.H.E. Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/22/2010 9:14:47 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Great American Insurance Company of New York

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 10:22:20 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

MIC Property & Casualty Insurance Corporation

Date Time Stamp 4/20/2010 9:24:11 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Discover Property & Casualty Ins Co

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 2:07:23 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Indiana Lumbersmens Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 10:22:28 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

St Paul Medical Liability Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 12:20:05 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Work First Casualty Company

Date Time Stamp 4/19/2010 3:43:12 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Fidelity & Guaranty Insurance Underwriters Inc

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 2:08:44 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

St Paul Protective Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 2:09:37 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

US Fidelity & Guaranty Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 2:10:09 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Bloomington Compensation Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/22/2010 10:57:24 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The Automobile Insurance Company of Hartford CT

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 12:43:07 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Owners Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 2:08:32 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Travelers Casualty Company of Connecticut

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 12:52:08 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

American Interstate Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 2:09:15 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Travelers Casualty Insurance Company of America

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 2:23:15 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Chrysler Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 10:05:10 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The Travelers Indemnity Company of America

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 2:23:40 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Continental Casualty Company

Date Time Stamp 7/21/2010 10:21:16 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

National Fire Insurance Company of Hartford

Date Time Stamp 7/21/2010 10:33:15 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Harleysville Preferred Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/21/2010 1:11:34 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Harleysville Worcester Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/21/2010 1:14:54 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Integon National Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/20/2010 9:22:52 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Secura Insurance A Mutual Company

Date Time Stamp 4/21/2010 10:14:06 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Fidelity & Guaranty Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 2:08:28 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The Charter Oak Fire Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 2:24:13 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Preferred Professional Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/22/2010 9:17:30 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

United Fire & Casualty Company

Date Time Stamp 4/22/2010 3:35:53 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Selective Insurance Company of the Southeast

Date Time Stamp 6/4/2010 9:38:33 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The Phoenix Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 2:24:47 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Employers Preferred Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/20/2010 6:06:17 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Selective Insurance Company of South Carolina

Date Time Stamp 6/4/2010 9:35:53 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Selective Insurance Company of America

Date Time Stamp 4/20/2010 8:32:50 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The Travelers Indemnity Company of Connecticut

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 2:25:02 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Amerisure Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/20/2010 2:35:53 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Stonington Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/28/2010 11:56:50 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Western National Assurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/12/2010 9:45:42 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Western National Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/12/2010 9:51:44 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

American Automobile Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/4/2010 12:12:56 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

National Surety Corporation

Date Time Stamp 5/4/2010 12:15:06 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

PartnerRe Insurance Company of New York

Date Time Stamp 4/12/2010 11:22:55 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Crum & Forster Indemnity Company

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 9:42:39 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Berkley Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 12:18:08 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Philadelphia Reinsurance Corporation

Date Time Stamp 4/28/2010 4:40:30 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Tokio Marine & Nichido Fire Ins Co Ltd (US Branch)

Date Time Stamp 4/20/2010 1:39:02 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

National Indemnity Company

Date Time Stamp 4/28/2010 4:41:14 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

North American Elite Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/15/2010 3:10:40 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Michigan Millers Mutual Ins Company

Date Time Stamp 4/14/2010 1:37:14 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Nationwide Affinity Insurance Company of America

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 11:08:33 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Berkley National Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 12:27:37 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Ace American Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 6/25/2010 12:48:20 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Markel Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/14/2010 1:32:22 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Society Insurance A Mutual Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 12:13:39 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Rockwood Casualty Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/13/2010 8:24:35 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Great Midwest Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/13/2010 10:55:32 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Hamilton Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/21/2010 7:30:43 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

EMC Property & Casualty Company

Date Time Stamp 4/21/2010 7:31:43 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Harleysville Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/23/2010 10:16:47 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Sentinel Insurance Company Ltd

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 12:24:44 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Pioneer Specialty Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/12/2010 9:41:13 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Hartford Accident & Indemnity Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 12:29:39 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

AXA Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/13/2010 2:47:53 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Coliseum Reinsurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 10:19:37 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The Ohio Casualty Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 6/22/2010 12:11:59 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Hartford Underwriters Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 12:49:16 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Ohio Security Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 6/22/2010 12:12:55 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Hartford Fire Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 12:51:43 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Diamond Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/7/2010 9:09:36 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

West American Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 6/22/2010 12:43:14 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Westfield Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/25/2010 8:32:31 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Ohio Farmers Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/25/2010 8:33:52 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Pennsylvania Lumbermens Mutual Ins Co

Date Time Stamp 4/20/2010 2:35:47 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Amerisure Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/20/2010 2:39:33 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Munich Reinsurance America Inc

Date Time Stamp 4/15/2010 1:38:42 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Hartford Casualty Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 12:55:39 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The Cincinnati Indemnity Company

Date Time Stamp 4/15/2010 10:37:25 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Lumbermens Mutual Casualty Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 1:43:22 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

American Fire & Casualty Company

Date Time Stamp 6/22/2010 12:47:17 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Accident Fund Ins Company of America

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 12:47:03 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Everest National Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/8/2010 10:54:15 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Lumbermens Underwriting Alliance

Date Time Stamp 4/13/2010 8:27:34 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Argonaut Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/22/2010 8:51:24 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Property & Casualty Insurance Co of Hartford

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 1:17:24 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

American Empire Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 10:36:26 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The Cincinnati Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/15/2010 10:20:12 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Everest Reinsurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/8/2010 9:31:16 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Greenwich Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 1:41:03 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Economy Fire & Casualty Company

Date Time Stamp 4/15/2010 7:23:58 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

XL Insurance America Inc

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 1:47:48 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

LM General Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/7/2010 7:15:28 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Insurance Company of North America

Date Time Stamp 6/25/2010 12:46:47 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Employers Insurance Company of Wausau

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 6:18:29 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Wausau Underwriters Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 6:19:08 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

General Casualty Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/8/2010 11:05:01 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Westchester Fire Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 6/24/2010 2:47:59 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Regent Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/8/2010 11:07:14 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/3/2010 7:28:29 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Liberty Mutual Fire Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 6:15:28 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

American Casualty Company of Reading PA

Date Time Stamp 7/21/2010 10:15:04 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Ace Indemnity Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 6/24/2010 2:47:15 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Argonaut Midwest Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/23/2010 8:28:07 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Bankers Standard Fire & Marine Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 6/24/2010 2:46:57 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Liberty Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 6:14:10 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Secura Supreme Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/20/2010 2:49:09 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Trenwick America Reinsurance Corporation

Date Time Stamp 4/6/2010 8:37:45 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Indemnity Insurance Company of North America

Date Time Stamp 6/25/2010 12:53:31 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

TNUS Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/20/2010 1:39:30 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Trans Pacific Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/20/2010 1:43:14 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Sequoia Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/21/2010 12:47:41 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The Camden Fire Insurance Association

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 8:02:57 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Accident Fund National Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 12:51:22 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Integrity Property and Casualty Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/16/2010 2:06:42 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

LM Insurance Corporation

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 6:16:12 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The First Liberty Insurance Corporation

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 6:16:49 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Wausau Business Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 6:19:50 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The Cincinnati Casualty Company

Date Time Stamp 4/15/2010 10:27:47 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Houston General Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 8:04:04 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

OneBeacon America Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/30/2010 8:02:10 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Harleysville Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/21/2010 1:10:02 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Peerless Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 6/29/2010 9:24:41 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

American Reliable Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/22/2010 12:57:27 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Farmland Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/25/2010 10:56:56 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Hawkeye-Security Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 6/29/2010 10:14:19 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Pharmacists Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/29/2010 9:40:06 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Addison Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/22/2010 3:37:59 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Acuity A Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/3/2010 11:23:38 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Tower Insurance Company of New York

Date Time Stamp 5/3/2010 12:52:59 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Security National Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/16/2010 8:53:06 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Peerless Indemnity Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 6/29/2010 8:43:06 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

American Alternative Insurance Corporation

Date Time Stamp 4/15/2010 1:36:19 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

American States Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 7/1/2010 8:04:03 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

American Home Assurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/30/2010 7:23:46 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The Ins Company of the State of Pennsylvania

Date Time Stamp 3/30/2010 7:31:22 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

North American Specialty Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/15/2010 3:48:35 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Milwaukee Casualty Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/16/2010 8:52:21 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Westport Insurance Corporation

Date Time Stamp 4/15/2010 3:36:24 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Diamond State Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/30/2010 9:01:33 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

United National Specialty Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/30/2010 9:02:11 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Continental Indemnity Company

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 10:56:09 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Delos Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/3/2010 3:50:56 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Great Northwest Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/29/2010 4:36:46 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

First National Insurance Company of America

Date Time Stamp 5/6/2010 9:59:11 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Federated Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/1/2010 9:06:11 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Odyssey America Reinsurance Corporation

Date Time Stamp 5/13/2010 3:18:16 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Insurance Company of the West

Date Time Stamp 4/22/2010 7:34:47 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

SAFECO Insurance Company of America

Date Time Stamp 6/30/2010 1:03:27 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Allstate Indemnity Company

Date Time Stamp 3/24/2010 8:57:40 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Allstate Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/24/2010 8:57:57 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Lincoln General Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/24/2010 9:08:41 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Chartis Property Casualty Company

Date Time Stamp 3/30/2010 7:35:30 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Allied Property & Casualty Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/3/2010 7:31:37 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Freedom Specialty Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/3/2010 7:32:53 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Sentry Insurance A Mutual Company

Date Time Stamp 4/7/2010 12:49:03 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Tower National Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/3/2010 12:55:07 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Commerce & Industry Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/30/2010 7:52:51 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Indiana Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 6/29/2010 11:31:29 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

National Union Fire Ins Co of Pittsburgh PA

Date Time Stamp 3/30/2010 7:39:46 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

AIG Advantage Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/30/2010 7:41:06 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Esurance Insurance Company of New Jersey

Date Time Stamp 3/25/2010 6:51:17 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

CastlePoint National Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/3/2010 1:54:37 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Grinnell Mutual Reinsurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 2:16:31 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The Northern Assurance Company of America

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 8:03:30 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Middlesex Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/7/2010 12:53:29 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Patriot General Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/7/2010 12:55:33 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Illinois Casualty Company

Date Time Stamp 3/31/2010 1:36:02 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The Netherlands Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 6/29/2010 11:12:10 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Employers Mutual Casualty Company

Date Time Stamp 4/20/2010 2:24:45 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Mitsui Sumitomo Insurance USA Inc

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 3:26:51 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Safety First Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/19/2010 10:26:52 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Safety National Casualty Corporation

Date Time Stamp 4/19/2010 10:21:36 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Bituminous Casualty Corporation

Date Time Stamp 3/30/2010 11:11:47 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Sentry Casualty Company

Date Time Stamp 4/7/2010 1:01:10 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Swiss Reinsurance America Corporation

Date Time Stamp 4/15/2010 3:11:47 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The Omaha Indemnity Company

Date Time Stamp 3/25/2010 10:27:15 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Centurion Casualty Company

Date Time Stamp 3/25/2010 1:39:17 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

MADA Insurance Exchange

Date Time Stamp 3/22/2010 9:30:11 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Allstate Property & Casualty Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/24/2010 8:58:12 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

American International Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/30/2010 7:41:31 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

American Centennial Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/20/2010 3:55:13 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Washington International Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/15/2010 3:12:05 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Illinois National Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/30/2010 7:45:28 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

AIU Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/30/2010 7:46:55 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

First Dakota Indemnity Company

Date Time Stamp 3/23/2010 9:09:10 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Granite State Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/30/2010 7:49:59 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Dakota Truck Underwriters

Date Time Stamp 3/23/2010 10:56:41 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Atlantic Specialty Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 8:05:21 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

New Hampshire Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/30/2010 7:56:20 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Church Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/31/2010 9:01:26 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Bituminous Fire & Marine Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/30/2010 11:12:08 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Global Reinsurance Corporation of America

Date Time Stamp 3/30/2010 1:42:21 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Endurance Risk Solutions Assurance Co

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 8:27:27 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Global Reinsurance Corporation - US Branch

Date Time Stamp 3/30/2010 1:43:21 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Integrity Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/19/2010 3:30:54 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Dallas National Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 10:02:09 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Federated Service Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/1/2010 8:51:44 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Generali - US Branch

Date Time Stamp 3/22/2010 10:47:46 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Midwest Family Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 6/2/2010 9:57:43 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

American Hardware Mutual Ins Co

Date Time Stamp 4/2/2010 1:25:14 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

ACIG Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/30/2010 10:12:47 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Accident Fund General Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 12:49:22 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

SeaBright Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/30/2010 5:46:10 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Midwest Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/30/2010 2:12:56 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Ace Property & Casualty Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 6/25/2010 12:54:17 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Berkley Regional Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 12:19:56 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Athena Assurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 12:19:24 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Federal Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/31/2010 2:25:39 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Mitsui Sumitomo Insurance Company of America

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 3:15:12 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

National Interstate Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/13/2010 10:00:16 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

General Security National Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/16/2010 8:20:14 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Old Republic General Insurance Corporation

Date Time Stamp 3/16/2010 7:59:06 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

OneBeacon Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/30/2010 8:04:18 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

General Casualty Company of Wisconsin

Date Time Stamp 4/8/2010 11:01:08 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

AMCO Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/3/2010 7:30:52 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

American Family Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/16/2010 12:36:09 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Century Indemnity Company

Date Time Stamp 6/24/2010 2:47:33 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Petroleum Casualty Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/24/2010 10:52:15 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

American Motorists Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 1:50:40 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Hudson Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/22/2010 3:42:58 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Allianz Global Risks US Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 3:27:10 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

SCOR Reinsurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/16/2010 8:22:21 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Great Northern Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/31/2010 2:30:38 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Western Agricultural Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/7/2010 1:20:30 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

StarNet Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 1:41:22 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Clearwater Select Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/22/2010 3:42:25 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Ace Fire Underwriters Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 6/25/2010 12:47:32 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Old Republic Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/16/2010 8:25:54 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The Employers' Fire Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/30/2010 8:03:13 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Farm Bureau Property & Casualty Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/7/2010 1:19:45 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

New England Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 1:17:12 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

MHA Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/12/2010 4:10:07 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Arrowood Indemnity Company

Date Time Stamp 3/19/2010 12:34:47 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Mid-Century Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 1:12:58 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Truck Insurance Exchange

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 1:37:40 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Pacific Indemnity Company

Date Time Stamp 3/31/2010 2:37:25 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Vigilant Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/31/2010 2:40:47 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Chubb Indemnity Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/31/2010 2:45:10 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Executive Risk Indemnity Inc

Date Time Stamp 3/31/2010 2:48:06 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Chubb National Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/31/2010 2:48:47 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

QBE Insurance Corporation

Date Time Stamp 3/12/2010 9:00:29 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Wilson Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/2/2010 4:55:52 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

MEEMIC Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/23/2010 12:58:00 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Bankers Standard Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 6/25/2010 12:55:22 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Arch Reinsurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 2:03:53 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

XL Specialty Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 1:45:56 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

QBE Reinsurance Corporation

Date Time Stamp 3/12/2010 9:01:49 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Harleysville Lake States Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/23/2010 10:47:37 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Frankenmuth Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/9/2010 2:20:20 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

XL Reinsurance America Inc

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 1:35:57 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Caterpillar Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/9/2010 9:43:48 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Twin City Fire Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 1:15:23 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The Florists' Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 3:30:38 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

American Economy Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 7/1/2010 7:59:53 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Assigned Risk Plan

Date Time Stamp 4/23/2010 2:57:04 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Sagamore Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 7:34:51 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

American Business & Personal Insurance Mutual Inc

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 4:09:22 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Massachusetts Bay Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 1:41:30 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Valley Forge Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 7/21/2010 10:25:33 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Consolidated Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/3/2010 2:22:23 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

PMA Capital Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/8/2010 11:43:26 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Transportation Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 7/21/2010 10:35:58 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The Continental Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 7/21/2010 10:29:36 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

RAM Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/23/2010 12:23:04 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

KnightBrook Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 4:54:04 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Protective Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 7:33:05 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Genesis Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 3:12:26 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Allmerica Financial Benefit Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 1:42:16 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Millers First Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 11:37:45 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

State Farm Fire & Casualty Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 3:39:08 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Arch Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 1:56:45 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

National Liability & Fire Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/28/2010 4:40:53 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Cumis Insurance Society Inc

Date Time Stamp 3/31/2010 3:22:40 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

SFM Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/28/2010 4:42:53 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Ullico Casualty Company

Date Time Stamp 5/3/2010 11:26:38 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Quanta Indemnity Company

Date Time Stamp 3/8/2010 11:55:32 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

NAU Country Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/20/2010 4:32:14 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The American Road Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/3/2010 3:41:40 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Citizens Insurance Company of America

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 1:43:00 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Ironshore Indemnity Inc

Date Time Stamp 3/3/2010 9:47:35 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Tri-State Insurance Company of Minnesota

Date Time Stamp 4/28/2010 3:45:44 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Iowa Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 2:39:21 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Continental Western Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 6:56:39 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

American Pet Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/3/2010 7:23:22 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Hartford Insurance Company of the Midwest

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 12:21:06 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

United States Fire Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 9:33:58 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The North River Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 9:38:42 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Rural Community Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/5/2010 9:32:12 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Auto-Owners Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 2:07:44 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

SFM Select Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/28/2010 4:45:28 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The American Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/4/2010 12:31:16 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Farmers Insurance Exchange

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 1:06:23 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Republic Western Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 3:57:51 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Mendota Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/3/2010 2:16:48 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Mendakota Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/3/2010 2:17:27 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Fireman's Fund Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/4/2010 12:16:10 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Pennsylvania General Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 8:06:02 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Rampart Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/4/2010 1:24:23 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

AXIS Reinsurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/5/2010 9:09:16 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Arch Indemnity Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 1:57:49 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Harco National Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/28/2010 2:47:10 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Praetorian Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/30/2010 10:55:05 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

SPARTA Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 7/8/2010 12:12:14 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Associated Indemnity Corporation

Date Time Stamp 5/4/2010 12:13:52 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Nipponkoa Insurance Company Ltd

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 2:01:48 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Pennsylvania National Mutual Cas Ins Co

Date Time Stamp 3/3/2010 9:55:40 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Transport Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/3/2010 9:55:08 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

American Country Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/3/2010 2:18:03 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Sentry Select Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/7/2010 12:58:15 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Great Divide Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/28/2010 10:01:12 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Southern Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/26/2010 9:38:39 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The Hanover Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 1:40:29 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Riverport Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/26/2010 7:34:05 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Kemper Casualty Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/28/2010 3:51:02 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

AXIS Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/5/2010 9:08:02 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

San Francisco Reinsurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/28/2010 12:40:15 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

United Wisconsin Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 9:28:19 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

NOVA Casualty Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 1:43:48 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Assn Ins Co

Date Time Stamp 3/5/2010 2:26:16 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Travelers Commercial Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 12:53:18 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The Midwestern Indemnity Company

Date Time Stamp 6/29/2010 10:55:20 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Zenith Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/23/2010 7:03:16 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Liberty Insurance Underwriters Inc

Date Time Stamp 2/24/2010 6:05:46 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Austin Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/28/2010 10:15:33 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Centennial Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/1/2010 9:08:37 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Travelers Property Casualty Company of America

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 2:23:58 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

American Physicians Assurance Corporation

Date Time Stamp 2/24/2010 2:35:08 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

APSpecialty Insurance Corporation

Date Time Stamp 2/24/2010 2:35:37 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Midwest Employers Casualty Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 9:31:36 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Great American Assurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 9:57:36 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Grange Mutual Casualty Company

Date Time Stamp 2/26/2010 7:27:46 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Trustgard Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/26/2010 7:28:09 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Brotherhood Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/23/2010 7:32:18 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Companion Property & Casualty Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/23/2010 7:12:24 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Federated Rural Electric Insurance Exchange

Date Time Stamp 2/22/2010 3:05:39 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Acadia Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/21/2010 9:48:39 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Seaton Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/1/2010 9:45:01 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Travelers Casualty & Surety Company of America

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 12:57:25 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

State Automobile Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/23/2010 7:55:49 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Erie Insurance Property & Casualty Company

Date Time Stamp 2/23/2010 7:20:19 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The Standard Fire Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 2:11:11 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

American Sentinel Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/22/2010 2:32:04 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Select Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 1:26:27 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

State Auto Property & Casualty Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/23/2010 8:00:49 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Nationwide Agribusiness Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/25/2010 10:57:47 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

HDI-Gerling America Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/23/2010 8:51:49 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Laurier Indemnity Company

Date Time Stamp 2/23/2010 1:53:54 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

North Star Reinsurance Corporation

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 10:39:11 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Advantage Workers Compensation Ins Co

Date Time Stamp 4/28/2010 12:48:29 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

General Reinsurance Corporation

Date Time Stamp 2/24/2010 10:28:28 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

American Manufacturers Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 2:02:17 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Transatlantic Reinsurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/24/2010 10:38:01 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Farmington Casualty Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 2:10:30 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Meridian Security Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/23/2010 8:18:44 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Travelers Casualty & Surety Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 2:12:19 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The Travelers Indemnity Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 2:24:29 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

MEDMARC Casualty Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/1/2010 8:10:28 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

St Paul Mercury Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 2:09:02 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Acceptance Indemnity Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/22/2010 11:48:59 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Companion Commercial Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/23/2010 7:13:53 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

First Financial Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/26/2010 1:35:34 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

St Paul Fire & Marine Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 2:09:21 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Norguard Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/24/2010 7:36:56 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Wesco Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/7/2010 7:52:22 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

National American Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/3/2010 10:00:52 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Teachers Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/4/2010 9:36:56 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Erie Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/23/2010 7:30:44 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Erie Insurance Company of New York

Date Time Stamp 2/23/2010 7:31:05 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Milbank Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/23/2010 8:15:05 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Virginia Surety Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/30/2010 11:22:44 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Cornhusker Casualty Company

Date Time Stamp 3/11/2010 6:48:42 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Atlanta International Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/28/2010 4:40:01 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

American Safety Casualty Insurance Co

Date Time Stamp 2/22/2010 12:38:44 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Erie Insurance Exchange

Date Time Stamp 2/23/2010 7:31:59 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Flagship City Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/23/2010 7:32:23 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Compass Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/23/2010 2:28:34 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Public Service Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/26/2010 10:17:39 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Great American Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 8:42:24 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Alaska National Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/19/2010 6:12:03 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Amguard Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/24/2010 7:33:43 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Alea North America Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/30/2010 2:48:19 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Firemen's Insurance Co of Washington DC

Date Time Stamp 4/28/2010 3:12:27 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

FirstComp Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 2:43:21 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Pacific Employers Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 6/25/2010 12:49:06 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

American Compensation Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/22/2010 10:38:46 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

National Reinsurance Corporation

Date Time Stamp 4/21/2010 8:15:23 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Nationwide Property & Casualty Ins Co

Date Time Stamp 5/3/2010 7:25:41 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Nationwide Mutual Fire Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/3/2010 7:26:33 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Great West Casualty Company

Date Time Stamp 4/26/2010 4:05:50 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Atlantic Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/21/2010 8:04:58 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

GuideOne Elite Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/19/2010 2:26:40 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Lancer Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 1:21:33 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Eastguard Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/24/2010 7:35:44 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

First Nonprofit Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/2/2010 9:30:18 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

State Farm General Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 3:40:14 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Union Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 10:52:21 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

GuideOne Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/19/2010 2:27:44 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Providence Washington Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/22/2010 11:56:54 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Utica Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/3/2010 7:43:12 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

First Mercury Casualty Company

Date Time Stamp 2/24/2010 9:40:52 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Americas Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/24/2010 10:21:58 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Greater New York Mutual Insurance Co

Date Time Stamp 2/24/2010 10:27:55 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Sompo Japan Insurance Co of America

Date Time Stamp 3/19/2010 9:45:37 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

St Paul Guardian Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/29/2010 2:09:52 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Westfield National Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/25/2010 8:28:07 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Technology Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/7/2010 8:01:39 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Northland Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/22/2010 12:04:44 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Aetna Insurance Company of Connecticut

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 12:41:01 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Vanliner Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 3/24/2010 5:06:17 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Allied World Reinsurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/30/2010 1:55:28 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Penn Millers Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/28/2010 7:43:19 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Great American Alliance Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 10:28:39 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Argonaut Great Central Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 9:39:35 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

West Bend Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 4/27/2010 9:33:00 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

The Gray Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 2/24/2010 10:52:39 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

ProAssurance Indemnity Company Inc

Date Time Stamp 4/22/2010 10:37:29 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

General Insurance Company of America

Date Time Stamp 7/1/2010 8:00:42 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Fairmont Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/13/2010 12:16:03 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Horace Mann Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/4/2010 9:37:23 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Fairmont Premier Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/13/2010 12:13:51 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Securian Casualty Company

Date Time Stamp 5/6/2010 7:39:54 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Fairmont Specialty Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/13/2010 12:14:51 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

ational Farmers Union Property & Casualty Compan

Date Time Stamp 5/10/2010 3:12:07 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

American Guarantee & Liability Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 9/3/2010 11:01:30 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

TIG Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 5/13/2010 12:17:34 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Zurich American Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 9/3/2010 10:56:43 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

American Zurich Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 9/3/2010 10:59:25 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Cooperative Mutual Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 6/2/2010 4:21:12 PM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?

This report displays data that the member submitted via the AAI website

Carolina Casualty Insurance Company

Date Time Stamp 6/16/2010 9:22:13 AM

Policy Year 2009

Contact Info

First Name
Telephone
Company

Last Name
Email

Standard Deductible Policies

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.

- 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
- 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
- 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
- 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN
- 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
- 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
- 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
- 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.

2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).

- 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
- 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
- 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
- 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
- 2e. Policyholder dividends.
- 2f. Other adjustments.

3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z)

- 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.

4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.
6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Large Deductible Policies Financial Reconciliation

1. Direct written premium at company rate level per the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement exhibit of premium and losses.
  - 1a. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2008 Annual Statement
  - 1b. Unearned premium reserve as reported on the NAIC 2009 Annual Statement
  - 1c. Earned premium for federal workers' comp coverages
  - 1d. Premium incurred/earned but not recorded/booked (IBNR or EBN)
  - 1e. Earned premium for excess policies.
  - 1f. Earned premium TRIA.
  - 1g. Earned premium for DTEC.
  - 1h. Earned premium for other adjustments.
2. This system calculated value from the data provided above should equal net earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 3, line Z).
  - 2a. Applied retrospective rating adjustment.
  - 2b. Applied premium discounts and credits.
  - 2c. Applied scheduled rating adjustments.
  - 2d. Applied small deductible or large deductible credits.
  - 2e. Policyholder dividends.
  - 2f. Other adjustments.
3. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at company rate level per the 2009 MWCIA policy year financial call (Column 2, line Z).
  - 3a. Value of the rate deviation from company rate level to MWCIA designated statistical reporting level.
4. This system calculated value, from the data provided above, should equal standard earned premium at designated statistical reporting (DSR) level per the 2009 MWCIA financial call (Column 1, line Z)
5. If premiums for Employer's Liability Increased Limits coverage are included in line 4, please provide the premium value.

6. 2009 WCRA standard earned premium exposure.

Questions

Did this company write Workers Compensation Insurance in Minnesota i

During calendar year 2009 did this company write Large Deductible Business

During calendar year 2009 did this company write large deductible policies on

Minnesota exposure having a deductible amount in excess of your 2009

WCRA retention limit?